

ITS MEANING.
St. Louis Globe-Democrat—The Wilson tariff bill is destined to put the wool business on a material basis.

CAN'T BE DONE.
Detroit Tribune—It will take a long time to popularize the idea that American industries are noncontingential.

DEAD TO THE WORLD.
Washington Post—It will be noticed that Billy Russell's Cousin John is taking very little interest in the new tariff bill.

CONFLICTING TASKS.
Washington Post—Mr. McKim of Grayson is making a mighty effort to make a living out of Christianity and Democracy.

A HEAVY LOAD.
Louis State Register—In trying to carry Hoke Smith, Queen Lil and the new tariff bill, the Democratic party is pretty well loaded down.

LOOKING BACKWARD.
Chicago Inter Ocean—At the time David wrote "All men are liars," it is supposed that an income tax was in force in his country.

UNCERTAIN, OOT AND HARD TO PLEASE.
Cincinnati Tribune—Mr. Watterson's goddess refused to be comforted. Nothing but the destruction of custom houses can satisfy that girl.

CURIOUS HORNBLLOWER.
Kansas City Times—It is generally believed that the President will make an other effort to chuck Hornblower through the Senate.

WHAT WORKMEN GOT.
Chicago Inter Ocean—(Cleveland and the big bosses got the Thanksgiving turkey, the working millions of the Nation got his "proclamation.")

ANTI SNAPPER THIRTY.
Washington Post—The distribution of the New York offices shows quite plainly that the Anti Snappers didn't go into the movement merely for their health.

REASON FOR FEAR.
Philadelphia North American—With a hard winter and the menace of such starvation as is foreboded in the Wilson bill in front of us, no wonder men stand aghast.

SHARED THE RECORD.
Recher Democrat and Chronicle—For accomplishing the greatest amount of mischief in the shortest time the Cleveland Administration is far ahead of all previous records.

WILLY JOHN HELL.
Indianapolis Journal—When Great Britain covets an African market it goes for it with muskets, but when it seeks the American market it espouses the cause of the Democratic party.

FIGHT IT!
Oregon Times—The country cannot afford to try the experiment which is proposed by this bill just for the sake of proving by disastrous experience that this Democratic measure is a colossal blunder.

FIGHT THE WILSON BILL.
Philadelphia Press—Whatever the Democrats may do, the Republicans in Congress have a clear path blazed before them. There can be no mistake or question about their policy. They will naturally and rightly resist the passage of the new tariff bill to the full extent of their power. They are not responsible for what Congress may do, but they are responsible for being faithful to their own convictions and for making the country fully understand what the change means and involves. They have a deep and earnest belief that the destructive measure will be disastrous to the industrial interests of the country and they would be recreant to duty if they failed to bring that truth home to the people by a determined and prolonged resistance.

MAKIE DECCA will sing in Cincinnati Sunday afternoon at the "Pop."

This finest scenic production ever on the Mayville stage will be seen in "Faust" to-night.

HON. THOMAS H. PATTER has expressed himself. He thinks the income tax is one of the best that could be devised to meet the threatened delinquency in the revenues.

His lecture by ex-Governor Bob Taylor at the Opera-house—It was one that our people cannot afford to miss. Let those who would learn something of our Mayor Taylor. He is well spoken of throughout the state.

We want to call attention to the stock of Pearl, Ivory and Plated Brass Knives and Forks, Tin Carvers and Forks, Plated Tea and Table Spoons, Fine Pewter and Table Cutlery, Sissors and Razors, Lead Pencils, Fire Bells and Coal Vases, carried in stock at Frank Owens Hardware Co., and will be sold very cheap.

THE

INSANE.
Emperor William, of Germany, Expresses a Belief That the Men Who Attempted His Life Were Non-Compus Mentis.
The Anarchists of Berlin deny any part in the plot to assassinate the Emperor. and Machine Gun. Says that From the Reich Capital.

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—Chancellor von Capri-vi-Wiedelmann had an audience with Emperor William in regard to the infernal machine sent to him. Emperor William is reported to have expressed the belief that the culprits were insane.

The written report of the gunsmith who examined the machine shows that the detonator rested upon a pointed iron peg, the explosive matter in the cap was similar to that used in old infernal cartridges. The gunsmith does not believe that the force of the hammer would have sufficed to explode the de-tonator. The loose powder found in the box was mixed with nitro-glycerine.
The machine sent to Chancellor von Capri was violently made by an inexperienced person and was only dangerous inasmuch as it might have singed the chancellor's hair.

An examination made Wednesday afternoon of the infernal machine, shows that they were loaded with a combination of nitro-glycerine and gunpowder, which would have produced an explosion which, besides killing the person opening the machine, would have sufficed to do serious damage to the building in which it exploded.

Chancellor von Capri and Maj. Em-breyer, his aide, were received by Emperor William, at the palace, Potsdam, Wednesday. Maj. Embreyer told in detail all the facts he knew in connection with the infernal machine that was sent to the emperor. His story in all respects agreed with the representative of the United Press on Monday last. Maj. Embreyer will be recalled, received the package and started to open it. Noticing something that seemed peculiar, he stopped, as he was removing the wrapper, he turned the parcel over to the police, who, after soaking it in water, made a cautious dissection, and discovered that it was an infernal machine. The emperor, after listening to the story, said the whole thing was the work of a madman. He added that he had no identified France with the attempted outrage, though the package was sent from Orleans.

Maj. Embreyer told the emperor that his wife was present when he began to undo the package. His majesty contemplated him upon the escape of himself and wife.

Even the anarchists of Berlin have expressed their non-approval of the attempt on the emperor's life. They held a meeting Tuesday night and declared that the anarchists were in no way connected with the outrage. The anarchists of Berlin, who are not connected with the outrage, had no enemies among the anarchists.
The anarchists of this city, acting in conjunction with the police of Paris, were actively engaged in the manufacture and sale of infernal machines, one of which was sent to the emperor.

To His Majesty, the Emperor and King, Berlin.
"Two anarchists have been arrested in Paris non suspecting of being connected with the plot to cause the death of the emperor and chancellor." The socialist newspaper Vorwarts, publishes a secret government order signified by Count Zuenberg, the Prussian minister, dated July, to the presidents of the provinces advising them to take measures to fight the anarchists. The publication of the order has caused sensation as it shows that every secret order of the government is its way into the socialist press.

ROBBERIES IDENTIFIED.

Two of the Gang Who Tortured Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—Two of the villains who so brutally tortured and robbed old man Thomas and his wife are in the clutches of the law, and their arrest is the result of clever work upon the part of Detectives Bauer, Grandstaff, White and Mahony.

Levi Morehead, captured as a prize fighter, assassin, saloon-keeper and tough. Some weeks ago he disposed of his saloon at the corner of State and Water streets, which had been made notorious by several murders and innumerable fights. Since that time he has been out of employment, and, with two other gentlemen of similar proclivities, named John Henderson and Lee Wright, has been living at the corner of Town and Erie streets.

Suspicion fell upon this trio, and their arrest was accomplished Wednesday. One by one they were taken to the Thomas household, where Morehead and Henderson were positively identified by the old people. Wright was declared not to be one of the gang.
The detectives believe, however, that they have the third man in the person of Ed Gundar, an ex-convict, who formally worked for Morehead, and who was taken before Thomas for identification Friday. It is believed that this gang has been doing a large part of the crooked work about the city recently, and a bunch of skeleton gang found under Morehead's pillow gives color to the suspicion.

Admitted Their Guilt.

LOMBARD, Dec. 1.—Scheleg and Floyd, the Minneapolis fugitives, who were the police of that city on the charge of robbing the Bank of Minneapolis of $50,000, admitted their guilt Wednesday at the St. Mary's court, saying that they did not want to be deposited in America ready to return to the United States, and that they were committed for extradition.

Engineer Drops Dead.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—John R. Lounsbury, aged 32, yard engineer on the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus road, dropped dead from heart disease on the road at Orrville, Thursday. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Miller, of this city, and two children.

Wheeling Shot Out.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Dec. 1.—Three men were shot out of a boat on the defeat of Wheeling, Ohio, in a game of football, Sunday.

BLOWN TO ATOMS.
A locomotive flung by a Non-Ten-Engineer.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 1.—Engine No. 7 of the Lehigh Valley road, drawing a freight from Manchester to Sayre, exploded at Vancetter last Thursday afternoon. Two men whose names are unknown, were blown into pieces.
Two more were seriously injured.
The explosion is supposed to be due to inexperienced handling of the engine.

The strikers' committee here are non-resistant than ever. The committee from the Local Trades and Labor Assembly waited on Station Agent Hewitt Thursday to call his sympathy. He replied that he was working for the railroad's interests. The assembly will probably ask manufacturers here who employ union labor to desist from sending freight by the Lehigh road.

PEACE IN BRAZIL.
This May Be the Result From a Conference Just Held.

MONTREAL, Uruguay, Dec. 1.—It is reported that Minister Assis, of Brazil, on behalf of President Epitaco, has discussed with the leaders of the revolutionary movement here looking to some decisive arrangement regarding the relief of the situation at Rio Grande do Sul. The fact that Minister Assis, in his conference with the representative of the revolutionists, is taken as confirmation of the rumor. It is also said the result of the conference will be to send troops out all Brazil. Minister Assis admitted Thursday that it was true he had called on Epitaco, but declared politics was not the subject of the conference. It was merely a visit of friendship.

THE DEATH WARRANT For Marquise Stone Said to Have Been Issued Two Months.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 1.—The first effort to avert or postpone the hanging of James E. Stone, the murderer of the Wratten family, will be made in the latter's behalf by his attorney, John A.
Spencer, of Washington, who will raise the point that the death warrant was issued by Gov. Matthews too soon, and will ask the supreme court to pass on that point. Spencer is in consultation with Stone, who is thought to have added another to his many complaints, implicating others in the crime.

was side-tracked near the Singer sewing machine factory at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. On board were twenty-five detectives, who mob gathered around the train and hoisted and jered at the engineer and trainmen. In a short time stones were thrown. The train stopped. The crowd, to disturb the train, was forced to draw their revolvers. Five shots were fired into the crowd, but no one was hurt.
The crowd left hurriedly, and the train was not undisturbed again.

Assassinated.
PORTER, N. Y., Dec. 1.—James Dun-way, who was found beneath the railroad bridge Tuesday morning with his spine broken and skull crushed, is dead. It has since been ascertained that in all probability Dunway came to his death at the hands of an assassin. A pocketbook containing over $100, which he had previous to leaving the city, was not on his person when found, and it is supposed he was pushed off the bridge after the pocketbook was stolen.
